

Conflict of Interest Statement

Committee members must be conscientious and scrupulous in their handling of funds and property belonging to The Chichester Singers, and must always avoid any form of financial impropriety.

The Committee must not use, or permit the use of, Choir property or resources for anything other than approved Choir business or activities.

Goods and services may be purchased from members of the choir, with Committee agreement.

A log of goods and services purchased from choir members is kept and reviewed at three-year intervals.
